Love Kraige Kinney's submittal to the ERS record of an article about Glenwood Meadows dated July 10, 2008.

A lot has changed in 4 years- there and nationally. But a few people come from Craig to shop here at Costco too...as if that is a huge boom to Gypsum (and Eagle's share of the revenue)

I know the former director of Tourism there (personal friend of mine) and I know 9 merchants over there. None believe it "helped" Downtown (they have a major highway running through it to one of the wealthiest counties in America- that's what keeps them alive.)

(3) I know are now out of business despite their high exposure and the rest are struggling dearly like the rest of us retailers.

Sincerely,
Jan Rosenthal Townsend
